

MOORPARK CITY LIBRARY

On August 1, 1912, members of the Fortnightly Group, later known as the Moorpark Women's Fortnightly, had a big dream for their small, rural town. They gathered to establish a new library in the fledgling community of Moorpark. Now, it's time to Dream Big, once again, as we celebrate our centennial of service. We're looking back and looking forward to the next 100 years and you can help us celebrate!

Join us at these great events:

Saturday, March 24, 2pm
at the High Street Arts Center
Moorpark City Library Celebrates 100 Years of Girl Scouts Fashion shows, silent auctions, prizes and more in honor of the 100th Anniversaries of Girl Scouts and the Moorpark City Library!

April 8-14, Moorpark City Library Celebrates National Library Week Contests, games and special events for everyone during this nationwide celebration. Come join us!

Saturday, May 19, Big Things at the Library
We're bringing some big things to the Library so the whole family can get an up close and personal look!

June-August, Dream Big with the Summer Reading Program Celebrate the summer like never before with wonderful events for the whole family including movie matinees, performers and other special events.

August 1, 2012, Anniversary Celebration
It's official! 100 years, to the day we first opened and you can join us as we commemorate this momentous event.
